History 144: First Exam Guidelines

For the first exam you will be responsible for the following chapters in the Bentley/Ziegler textbook:

- Ch. 23: Transoceanic Encounters and Global Connections
- Ch. 24: The Transformation of Europe
- Ch. 25: New Worlds: The Americas and Oceania
- Ch. 26: Africa and the Atlantic World
- Ch. 27: Tradition and Change in East Asia
- Ch. 28: The Islamic Empires

The exam will consist of:

- 16 questions based on textbook material
- 4 questions based on The Question of Hu
- 4 questions based on Personalities & Problems (as per syllabus assignments)
- 31 questions based on class lectures

55 questions total, each worth 2 points, but for a maximum score of 100

That is, 5 answers may be wrong and the maximum score can still be earned.

Each question has 4 possible answers. Answer all questions; leave none blank.

In addition to the names of the people profiled in the Wolf book, there will be questions on the following names & concepts:

- Confucius
- Mercator map
- Cruise Town
- Capitalism
- Spice trade
- Mercantilism
- Rise of West
- Columbian exchange
- Modernization
- Chinese civil service exam
- Pluralist empires
- Culturalist states
- Protestant Reformation
- Emperor Charles V
- No. American Indians
- Chinese society
- Shah-Jahan
- Mughal art
- Pieter Bruegel
- Slavery
- Janissaries
- Hagia Sofia
- Decline of Islamic empires
- Law of Retarding Lead
- Holy Roman Empire
- Peter the Great
- Tokugawa shogunate
- Guns & gunpowder

No dates to memorize (where necessary, dates are included in stem of question).

Bring half-page-size Scantron; at exam time write on the Scantron whether taking exam A or B or C. Please do not write on any of the exam pages themselves. Use a Scantron that is not bent, folded, or crumbled (otherwise the machine will reject it).
Be prepared to show Student ID card (with picture) when turning in completed exam.

To do well on the exam you will have had to attend class regularly, done the reading, and studied hard.